

Make your own chef's hat

Seeds always wears his chef's hat when he's cooking. This is for food safety and hygiene reasons.

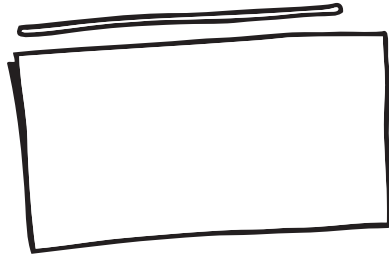

Can you make your own chef's hat following the instructions below? Be careful when you use the scissors.

You will need:

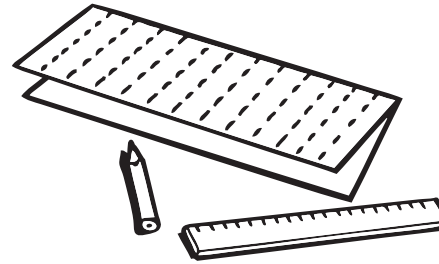

- ♥ A piece of card
- ♥ Sticky tape
- ♥ String
- ♥ Scissors

- 1 Use a piece of string to measure the size of your head.

- 2 Using the string as measurement, cut the card so it is the same length.

- 3 Now fold the card in half and on one half draw 10–12 lines equally spaced apart depending on head size. These will be your guide when you start to cut.

- 4 Unfold the paper and cut along the guide lines up to the fold. Be careful when using scissors. Remember to cut off one strip completely and keep this for later.

- 5 Fold the card around so it is the right size for your head and stick together with tape. Your chef's hat is now taking shape!

- 6 Next it's time to do the top of the hat. Take the ends of the cut strips and stick together with tape.

- 7 Cut a circle from the strip of card that you kept safely to one side. Stick to the top of the chef's hat.

- 8 Your chef's hat is now ready to wear!
